

DATA HYGIENE

DONORFINDER BATCH

Quickly and easily keep track of name, address and life changes with our batch processing services and reduce your returned mail volume and expenses.

What would it mean to your annual fund and advancement staff to quickly and accurately update the names, addresses, phone numbers, email addresses, wealth indicators, and deceased flags in your databases, for a fraction cost and time that it would take to do so online? Our batch processing services can do just that.

DonorFinder couples the power of its multi-billion record data repository with deep data expertise. And because integrating data from multiple sources often means merging different file layouts and disparate data types. DonorFinder employs a full staff of data experts who use complex database applications and human intuition to simplify this process.

Save time and money by electronically screening your database:

- Correct and Standardize Data for Faster Processing
- Identify Spelling and Data-Input Errors
- Remove Costly Duplicate Records
- Reduce Expenses Spent on Postage and Shipping
